Transition Experience

ONE DAY OF INSIGHT THAT WILL LAST A LIFETIME

We pride ourselves in putting hospitality retail operators front and centre of what we do. This high-energy event is designed specifically for companies to identify their passionate and ambitious leaders and put them in the company of their peers. We intend that everyone - shift leaders and unit managers, regional directors and entrepreneurial bosses will get something for the day.

These heroes of hospitality deserve an event like this!

Your team will be ENGAGED, ENTHUSED and EMPOWERED – we can help them find the best way to motivate themselves and others, and to reveal the mindset and actions of a hospitality leader.

Speakers include: -

Karen Turton - Learning and Performance Director of Transition who is a true hospitality professional - with successful roles at Spirit, Turtle Bay and Nando's.

Howard Saunders - The Retail Futurist who has spoken at CEO events across the globe on all things retail and the changing demands of the consumer.

Your team will be ENGAGED, ENTHUSED and EMPOWERED - as our team help them find the best way to motivate themselves and their team and how to think and act as a hospitality leader.

We will change the way they think in one day - in one powerful day.
